14th July 2019

YEAR C

Bunclody / Kilmyshall Parish

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Parish of Bunclody/Kilmyshall shall be a Community:

- Of renewed faith and commitment to Christ expressed in prayer and genuine Eucharistic worship where all participate fully.
- With deep respect for and interest in each and every person.
- Flourishing in love, care, support, co-operation, education and communication, building to the unity of the Body of Christ.
- Reaching out the hand of welcome to all who do not belong to our faith and worshipping community.

Volunteers for Patron

For the smooth running of the Parish Patron on Friday, July 26th, we need volunteers to act as stewards to assist with parking and exit of cars before and after the patron. It's important there be a ready response to our request. All interested please contact the Parish Office (053-9376190) and leave contact details. The Patron is an important parish occasion and can't take place without sufficient help.

SYMPATHY

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Parables are never what they seem. They have a clever way of enticing us to figure out what is really going on beneath the surface. One of the real questions in this parable is: Who offers correct worship to God? Jesus spoke about a God who was not concerned with the constraints of the Temple but was on the streets. Look at what the Samaritan did for the man on the road: he bound his wounds, he poured oil on them, he took him to an inn. These are all action words. The emphasis in this parable is on action and compassion. The Samaritan is considered to be an outcast, yet Jesus makes him the hero of this story, no doubt causing outrage to those who were listening to Him. The priest and Levite were most likely carrying oil and wine on their person; in the case of the priest, these items were needed for making sacrifices in the Temple. Coincidentally these items were also a vital part of a first century first aid kit, needed for cleaning the wounds of the injured man. The lawyer is concerned with the limits to "love of neighbour". But there are no limits, no boundaries, no outsiders in God's Kingdom. Holiness is not separation from the marginalised, but proximity to them.

"Since once again Lord, I have neither bread, nor wine, nor altar, I will raise myself beyond these symbols, up to the pure majesty of the real itself; I will make the whole Earth my altar and on it will offer you all the labours and sufferings of the world.—Teilhard De Chardin"

-Jane Mellett

THE ANNUAL PATRON WILL TAKE PLACE ON FRIDAY 26TH JULY.

Words of Wisdom

"It's not the things we have done/But the things left undone/That cause the greatest worry/At the setting sun." - Nance Bond
