THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

There are times when we try to get by with the bare minimum. Maybe we have scraped through an exam with the minimum of effort, or some a last minute rush job to complete a work project. Plenty of us know what it's like to do just enough around the house to keep it from descending into total chaos!

Perhaps unconsciously, we sometimes take the same approach to our relationships — only phoning a parent once in a blue moon to "check in" or visiting a friend only when we are reminded. It can be easy to slip into a pattern of acting out of a sense of duty rather than love.

Of course, our faith can go the same way. Are there times when we approach the Eucharist with a niggling feeling that something is not quite right? If so, Jesus has some strong words for us in today's Gospel. If we believe that all we are expected to do is "follow the rules," we have missed something important. Jesus does not want us to merely to follow the letter of the law. Where is the joy or the challenge of that? He tells us that our virtue must go deeper than simple doing the bare minimum. Not only must we not kill, we must not be angry with others. Not only must we not break a promise, we must be honest in all our dealings and in our speech. If we approach the altar without being on good terms with others, we are not in true communion with God.

Obeying the rules is the bare minimum. The Gospel is calling us to a more radical way of living.
