THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

I'm gonna let it shine! Perhaps you are familiar with this popular hymn. It is often used in children's liturgies, and was in fact written as a gospel song for children in the 1920s. It later became something of an anthem for the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 60s, associated in particular with civil rights leader Frannie Lou Hamer. The song was seen as a way of expressing unity, as people fought for equal rights and freedom.

"This Little Light of Mine" is based on the words of Matthew's Gospel that we hear today: "No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub...your light must shine in the sight of men." Without the light of those who were part of the civil rights movement, our world would be a very different place. There are good people everywhere who continue to fight for justice and freedom, who use their "light" to help others and make sure people are treated fairly and with dignity—both those who campaign and speak out about injustice, and the people on the ground who support the sick, the homeless, refugees and others experiencing difficulties. Witnessing so much suffering, it might be tempting for these "people of light" to become disheartened, but they carry on, using their compassion and skills to bring about change, shining their light in the darkness. As followers of Christ, we are called to light up the world. Take some time this week to think about how you can let your light shine.

"A community of Jesus which seeks to hide itself has ceased to follow him." Dietrich Bonhoeffer
