May They Rest in Peace.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

If you sow seeds, or watch plants grow, you have ample opportunities to pause in wonder at the whole process of growth. It takes place imperceptibly and comes to fruition in beautiful flowers, majestic trees and abundant harvests.

Jesus uses this example from everyday observation to teach about the growth of the Kingdom of God, the kingdom of right relationships with God and with one another. There too growth is slow, development is imperceptible, and then without realising it you have a mature relationship. Recall the stages of such development in your life of faith and in your friendships and give thanks.

In the second parable Jesus invites us to reflect on the importance and significance of relationships in our lives as they grow and mature. This is true both of our relationship with God and with others around us. When have you found a relationship in which you could 'make a nest in its shade'?

THE HOOK OF FAITH THIS WEEK

On Father's Day we offer a few thoughts on what it means to be a Christian father and encourage all fathers to value the gift of faith they try to pass on to their children. This Sunday 16th June we celebrate the annual 'Day for Life' that focuses this year on the terminally ill. We offer resources and prayers. On the Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time we reflect on Jesus' parable of the mustard seed and offer inspiring Newsletter inserts and quotes. We include an article from Sean O'Leary on the 'Spirituality of Parish Meetings' and a poem from Philip Quirke on 'The Garden of Paradise'. We honour the Irish Martyrs whose feast day is on 20th June and offer a number of essential elements of Youth Ministry according to Pope Francis. Finally, a video on 'Life, Love and Witness' by Peter Kreeft.
