THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Jesus gave the disciples a share in his mission by sending them out ahead of him. It was a gesture of trust and confidence on his part, even though they did not fully understand his mission. Have you ever been surprised by the trust shown in you by others to speak or act on their behalf?

Jesus sent the disciples out two by two. Perhaps your experience gives you examples of the value of having another with you when engaged in an important task.

The apparently strange instructions given by Jesus intended to counteract practices by bogus preachers who used preaching as a mask for money-making. True disciples of Jesus focus on the mission and not on their own comforts. Is it your experience that vested interests can impede a task, whereas having the right motives makes your mission more effective?

The task of the disciples was to call people to repent, (metanoia= conversion, change the way we look at God and at other people). Who have been the people in your life who have prompted you to be more trusting in God or more compassionate to people? To whom have you given this call?

THE HOOK OF FAITH THIS WEEK

The Vatican recently approved of the canonisation of Blessed Carlo Acutis that is expected to take place during the Jubilee Year of 2025. But just who was Carlo Acutis and why are many drawn to this young man who was only 15 when he died? An article explores these questions. The homily for the Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time connects the changing times in today's Church and Jesus request that his disciples NOT be burdened by things that leave them unfree to proclaim the Gospel. We have the usual newsletter inserts and the second part of the article on the place of beauty in catechesis. In a recent talk for the Iona Institute, Fr Chris Hayden clearly and pastorally spells out the Church's teaching on sexuality based on a Scriptural understanding of the human person. We have a video talk on 'Becoming like Little Child' and more light and inspiration from Lorcan Brennan.
